

Aerojet Rocketdyne Foundation Supporting COVID-19 Relief Efforts

April 21, 2020

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., April 21, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Aerojet Rocketdyne Foundation has launched a campaign to provide up to $750,000 to support COVID-19 relief efforts in communities where Aerojet Rocketdyne facilities are located. The campaign includes direct funding from the foundation and an employee donation matching program.

"We have strong ties to our local communities and I am proud that our Foundation is here to support them during this time of need," said Aerojet Rocketdyne CEO and President Eileen Drake.

The Aerojet Rocketdyne Foundation is donating $250,000 to COVID-19 relief efforts in communities across the nation where Aerojet Rocketdyne employees live and work. These donations are being provided to the following community support organizations:

Company Site Location	Nonprofit Organization
Huntsville, AL	Community Foundation of Greater Huntsville
Camden, AR	Ouachita Valley Community Foundation/Arkansas Community Foundation
Los Angeles, CA	California Community Foundation
Sacramento, CA	Sacramento Region Community Foundation
Daytona Beach, FL	United Way of Northeast Florida
Orlando, FL	Heart of Florida United Way
West Palm Beach, FL	The Community Foundation for Palm Beach and Martin Counties
Stennis, MS	United Way of South Mississippi
Carlstadt, NJ	Community Foundation for New Jersey
Jonesborough, TN	United Way of Washington County
Orange, VA	Charlottesville Area Community Foundation and Northern Piedmont Community Foundation
Arlington, VA	Greater Washington Community Foundation
Redmond, WA	Hopelink, Maltby Food Bank and Sky Valley Food Bank

In addition to the direct grants, the Aerojet Rocketdyne Foundation will match dollar-for-dollar, up to $250,000 in employee donations, to a nonprofit of their choice that is supporting COVID-19 relief efforts. This funding could provide up to another $500,000 in support to COVID-19 relief efforts in our communities.
